Too many faded years and I can't hold her.
Too many strange times have come out way.
Too many tear drops, yeah, I don't get it.
Life moves on if you want it to.

Too many times I've felt my heart was broken.
Wasting time with someone I don't get.
But I've found someone who makes me happy.
Yeah, I found someone who makes me go.

I wanna ride with her in uncertain times.
I wanna go where my thought can take a nap.
And if the atom bomb should end us both,
I'd be happy to go to the stars with you.

I wanna ride with you in uncertain times.
I wanna go where my thoughts can take a nap.
And if the atom bomb should end us both,
I'd be happy to go to the stars with you.

I wanna ride with you in uncertain times.
I wanna go where my thoughts can take a rest.
And if the atom bomb should end us both,
I'd be happy to go to the stars with you.
