"Come & Go"

We've been runnin' oh so far, just as fast as our legs can go I've been runnin' oh so far from the places and people I know There's been some times that I miss you, many times that I don't
They come and go, they come and go

And if someone could cut me open they could see I only run so deep Every ounce is being painted on the walls of my stomach while I sleep And I've had some nights to remember, many nights
that I don't
They come and go, they come and go

It feels like ever since forever I've been waiting on a downbound train
That only stops when it is ready to and every rider knows my name
And for every face I remember, there's a name that I don't
They come and go, they come and go

But lately I'm out of my head Cause no matter how much I pretend That I think I should be there my heart wants to be here instead
And lately I ain't been so strong I've been good, I've been bad, I've been wrong
And the beat of my hearts been runnin' on these fumes for so long
And it's all I know

You can call off the search, man, there's no need to rescue me
I'm the last train to nowhere, there's nowhere I'd rather be
And it's leaving the station, and it's taking me home
And it's all that I know, I come and go

We come and go, we come and go
We come and go, we come and go
And it's all that I know, and it's all I know I come and go
