He's got a fine a black overcoat
He's a drumstick guy, wanna conquer the world
He wants medals hanging over the walls
But he drinks all night and it just don't goes... a planner loosing control for a stolen half glass or bit more u can see him when night is late please don't laugh just go yr way!!!
He looks like a monkey behind the wheel
but he won't keep it in his childish mind...
I SING: ONE WAY DRIVER / la la la la la...
That's the story I would tell my son
If he'd be addicted to alchool:
Child, you're gonna give it all to hell
I'm sure u'll find your own way to sell...
