I am not deaf, I just don't wanna listen
Everything you say sounds like it's rapped in Cellophane
If I can't break through
The surface and you
Are never gonna change
Everything is said and done
What have you become

I've held my breath for far too long
Sweating bullets from my veins
It isn't me to feel so numb
And you are always gonna stay the same

I washed my hands clean
From the blood at the crime scene
Everything is said and done
Part of me's become
Forever numb

Staring at a space across the table
Never in my wildest dreams did I think I'd be able To walk away
To better days
You know I'm okay
Everything is said and done
What have you become

I've held my breath for far too long
Sweating bullets from my veins
It isn't me to feel so numb
And you are always gonna stay the same

I washed my hands clean

From the blood at the crime scene
Everything is said and done
Part of me's become
Forever numb

You're gonna face everyone that you burned

(You're gonna face everyone that you burned)
You're gonna face everyone that you hurt
All of your excuses
And your sorry eyes
No, they won't get you by this time

I've held my breath for far too long
Sweating bullets from my veins
It isn't me to feel so numb

I washed my hands clean
From the blood at the crime scene
Everything is said and done
Part of me's become
Forever numb

For far too long sweating bullets from my veins
(Forever numb)
To feel so numb and you are always gonna stay the same

I washed my hands clean
From the blood at the crime scene
Everything is said and done
Part of me's become
If everything is said and done
What have you done
Forever numb
