My Grandpa said to me, "grandson, sit down, we need to talk
In life, there may be times when it gets hard to walk the walk.
It's easier to take the path that most have traveled on.
But then again sometimes to do what's right you must walk alone."

In love it's a lonely road
Ohh
When this world burns down
Deep in your soul
Ohh
You will find there's a piece left in mind
You will find there's a piece to find
(Piece to find)

Some people are unkind to those who see things different
We've all felt pain in ways it hurts to even bring it up
But that don't mean that we should Take this motion lying down
I'll stand and fight until the day they put me down the ground

In love it's a lonely road
Ohh
When this world burns down
Deep in your soul
Ohh
You will find there's a piece left in mind
You will find there's a piece to find
(Piece to find)

And now I've taught you all I know
So take your seed and let it grow
(So take this seed and let it grow)
So take this seed and let it grow
Though I'm here now, soon I'll be gone
I did what I can to try to make it strong
(I did what I can to try to make it strong)
(And I see that you're strong)

In love it's a lonely road
Ohh
When this world burns down
Deep in your soul
Ohh
You will find there's a piece left in mind
You will find there's a piece to find
(Piece to find)

In love it's a lonely road
(Such a lonely road)
In love it's a lonely road
Hey
In love it's a lonely road
In love it's a lonely road...
