Early in the morning, factory whistle blows
Man rises from bed and puts on his clothes Man takes his lunch, steps out in the morning light
The working, the working, just the working life

Through the mansions of fear, through the mansions of pain
I see my daddy walking through them factory gates in the rain

Factory takes his hearing and factory gives him life
The working, the working, just the working life

End of a day, factory whistle cries Men walk through those gates with death in their eyes And you better believe it, boy, somebody's gonna get hurt tonight
The working, the working, just the working life
