Hey, I can tell you're not OK
White dress caught your Cabernet
The stain that broke the camel's back

Hey, slowly whittling away
Turned into paper mache
Feather brush'll make you crack

Cause I can see inside your broken heart
It's gonna be alright

When you can't see where you're going to
When it's all slipping away from you
I will never let you go

Oh, I am gonna lock the door
Make a refuge on the floor
Only coming up for air

Babe, you don't have to shy away
Just say what you need to say
I'm not going anywhere

When you can't see where you're going to
When it's all slipping away from you
I will never let you go

A work of art despite yourself
You fall apart, you're someone else
But I will never let you go

I will never let you go
I will never let you go
I will never let you go

When somebody cut your brakes
When you had all you can take
When the ground beneath you shakes
All you have are your mistakes
Spinning way too many plates
When you can't carry the weight

And nobody can relate
When you think it's much too late
When you just can't keep it straight
When you're settled on your fate
When they're closing all the gates
And the world accelerates
The world accelerates, the world accelerates...
