Selective memory conveniently drops by
When you're up in the club and some girls caught your eye
What, you don't think I hear rumors?
My friends don't have eyes?

I know your mind's like a computer
But you turn it off sometimes
I wonder what you're doing to me
What you're doing, boy
I remember

[Chorus:]

Don't play dumb
Cause I know what you're thinking
Forget about it
Back it up
Cause you now that I
Won't forgive you, won't forget the
Damage done
And I won't take you back
Forget about it

You remember science books
The French you took last year
Every single sports statistic but you still don't get it,
dear

I wonder are you really with me?
Are you really, boy?
Just remember

[Chorus:]

Don't play dumb
Cause I know what you're thinking
Forget about it
Back it up
Cause you now that I
Won't forgive you, won't forget the
Damage done
And I won't take you back
Forget about it

Boy, I know this one thing
You ain't forgetting nothing

[Chorus:]

Don't play dumb
Cause I know what you're thinking
Forget about it
Back it up
Cause you now that I
Won't forgive you, won't forget the
Damage done
And I won't take you back
Forget about it

Don't you forget about it
Forget about it
