Bed him down and take his crown
He's off on another bender.
Bottled courage - cap the climax, faithfully fit for lies.
My apologies sir, I've already been spoken for by the needle of regret and the eyes of a murderer.
Oh god show me that faith hasn't fallen short.
Clip the wings of sincerity... say goodbye
Say goodbye to that cliché sinking heart.
That ship set sail, say goodbye. (to your broken heart)
Life goes on.
But glory be thy gun,
The torch for everything I love, you destroy everything I love.
Through the wings of the loveless.
Spill the blood of the innocent.
Through the wings of the loveless
Spill their blood.
I await your flames tonite
We will live or die.
You drive me from sleep and pray we don't lose touch.
Show me love isn't something that we can live without,
Show me love
Show me "the love" ...
My god can't live without love.
You are the nails to my hands I pray we don't lose touch.
