I'm drawing pictures of them
I'll be the writer of ten I'm simple like the chemicals in men
I'll be all by myself until i can I'm a little like the man that never understands what mood he's in I'm simple like the future of an end
I'll be all by myself until i can
I'm okay on my own
Cuz I'm okay on my own
you can blame yourself when you're running in circles
Cuz I'm okay on my own
this could be the better part of me i feel like i am able to believe that i won't be able to blend with them there no future in an end
I'm okay on my own
Cuz I'm okay on my own
You can blame yourself when you're running in circles
Cuz I'm okay on my own
I'm okay on my own
Cuz I'm okay on my own
You can blame yourself when you're running in circles
Cuz I'm okay on my own
