"Lay Down"

She was alone
Up in her room
When the lights illuminated
And the bombs hit the ground
Now I wasn't there
But I was still scared
The consequence of murder still thick in the air (Air Raid, cover your face and turn away as we...)
Lay down bright eyes
That need you to realize
We're needless out there
And you know and I know
We're better off alone

I won't believe in god's purgery
Is this what you do when the world turns on you?
If you're such a threat to the powers that be Save us all the trouble and take your own life away
(Give up give up, it's a sign, say goodbye)

(chorus)

This is a call to arms, grab your guns and let's take the reigns
This is a warning sign, make a right or pay the price
This is the medicine, take a pill and hold your breath
Defend against the world, the only way to hate is love

This is a call to arms, grab your guns and let's take the reigns!
