At 1:00 AM I'm home while writing to you
Its almost winter
But it's warmer then June
With only 5 hours away from here
And a trip I'm looking forward to-
I think I might be seeing you soon.
(seeing you soooooon)

That morning I woke up on Sunday
Next to tree tops
Off of orange, across the way
Happy Birthday
I'm happy that your here with me.
A home with only the two of us-
There's no other place I'd rather be
(I'd rather beeeee)

Since I've met you it's all seemed right
Now I'm longing for the November night...

I've said it all,
Every word I mean,
And I just want you back.
I miss you.

So wherever you're at (wherever your at)
I'll make you see
(I will make you see)
That I just want you back
I miss you.
