I'm leaving and when I leave
Don't remind me of the story
I'll read it someday

I'm standing and when at a stand still
I'll sit back and laugh about that day
As you know I will

Close my eyes 'cause I sleep well
And at night sweet dreams can come to warm me
Close my eyes cause I sleep well
And at night sweet dreams can come to warm me

I'm waiting so as I wait
For the next thing to come take place
It should way back when

I'm drifting so as you drift off
I walk down to the ocean
And I'll sail away, far away

Away I go (away I go, away I go)
One thing I know
I sail too deep (I sail too deep, I sail too deep)
Sleep well, sweet dreams, goodnight

Close my eyes 'cause I sleep well
And at night sweet dreams can come to warm me
Close my eyes cause I sleep well
And at night sweet dreams can come to warm me

Close my eyes cause I sleep well (so I close me eyes, know that I will) (x6)
