Is this what you want
My eyes focus on you
Is this what you wanted
Her eyes focus on you
My feelings never changed
But your reception often fades
Whatever i say
The thunder's louder than you
Whatever i do these feelings are louder than you
Miss you now you're gone
And she's the only one
Thoughts of you linger on
My heart to you is numb
My feelings haven't changed
But you no longer feel the same
Whatever i say
The thunder's louder than us
Whatever i do
These feelings are louder than us
Sweet smell before the rain
Of flowers caught in a twister
The frequencies never change
And you still hear me say
I love you
Hear her say she loves you too
Whatever
Whatever
Whatever
Miss you now you're gone
Whatever
Whatever
Whatever
Now she's the only one
Whatever
Whatever
Whatever
Still your words go on
