Today's gone and tomorrow i'll be waiting for you
Yesterday's here and tomorrow i'll be waiting for you
We made plans for your last day
Sat and talked for awhile
You were standing when i heard you say
"i don't know when i'll see you"
And you reached over and looked as we said goodbye

And i know when you need me
I'll be thinking, waiting until next time

It seems so strange as a stranger lost inside of you
Without a cause and direction i'll never make it through
You'll pass by now and then only for me to hear
Those lonely words again
"i don't know when i'll see you"
And you reached over and looked as we said goodbye

And i know when you need me
I'll be thinking, waiting until next time

Until next time, i'll be waiting for you
Until next time
