You are having trouble Keeping Your Eyes Open I'm having trouble keeping this whole thing going Another night of staying out of fights and things I couldn't show her Another pretty girl so Brandon and I can screw eachother over
She doesn't understand that when she leaves

I am gonna miss her Trying to make her understand why I never meant to kiss her.
I've watched behind me just to see a million words could never hurt me
It never works how I want it to
They never do what I say They never do what I tell them to
They never do what I say
