Did you think I wouldn't stay right here with you with heavy eyes
Did you know I cried?
And if I could keep this life I might find
I wont pretend I could take on your pain
2 cents... boy, daydreams come cheap these days

"That's a wish" he said That you and me wont bleed
And they stay and we stay even if they leave
"Boy" he says "I think you're just like me"
I could make a million of them
I could never make them come true
I could make everyone about you, but what about me?
