Just like you
You're so perfect, I love you

When I started out
I had so many doubts
About what a true friend should be
But I don't ask those questions anymore

When I was trying hard to find
The truth between the lines
You were always there for me
I never knew a friend like you before

Chorus:
And everything you say and do
And every time I reach out for you
You come through
You're the reason that I'm growing into
Someone real and free
And not afraid to be
Like you

It means so much to me
The promises you keep
You never ever let me down
Time and time again you always prove
That you're perfect

You inspire me to be
The best that I can be
It's what real love's all about
And every day I try to be more like you

Chorus

Like you
Every time I reach out
You know me inside out
It's you, always you

And everything you say and do
And every time I reach out for you

You come through
You're the reason that I'm growing into
Someone real and free
And not afraid to be
Just like you

You're so perfect
I love you
Just like you, just like you
You're so perfect
I love you
