Every time I see her face (every time I see her face)
When I'm in the marketplace (when I'm in the marketplace)

She never laughs she never cries (she never laughs
she never cries)

The girl

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)

Someone hurt her I'm so sure (someone hurt her I'm so sure)

All the pain she must endure (all the pain she must endure)

She can't hide it but she tries (she can't hide it but she tries)

The girl

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)

Her hair is dark as a midnight sky

Her eyes have a mystic mist

Her lips are like the twilight sun

Just yearning to be kissed

Someday we will say hello (someday we will say hello)

And I'll never let her go (and I'll never let her go)

In my heart the secret lies (in my heart the secret lies)

I love the girl

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)

Her hair is dark as a midnight sky

Her eyes have a mystic mist

Her lips are like the twilight sun

Just yearning to be kissed

Someday we will say hello (someday we will say hello)

And I'll never let her go (and I'll never let her go)

In my heart the secret lies (in my heart the secret lies)

I love the girl

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)

With the story in her eyes (with the story in her eyes)
