well our hearts
beat like thunder i dont know why they dont explode youve got your hands in my backpockets and sanfran singin on the radio you say that im the boy that can make it all come true well im tellin you that i know if i know what to do you say its all right, hold tight when i dont even know if im doin this right well alright

hold tight
we can stay out all day we can run around all night well all night
all night
when its time to go home and i aint even done with the night well i dont kno now good comments and i dont know no cool lines i feel the heat of your frustration i know its burnin you up deep down inside you say that im the boy that can make it all come true well im tellin you i dont know if i know what to do you say its all right

hold tight
when i dont even know if im doin this rite well alright
hold tight
when its time to go home and i aint even done with the night aint even done with the night

hold tight
when i dont even know if im doin this right well all right

we can stay out all day or we can run around all night
all night
night
no i aint even done with the night
no i aint even done with the night
no i aint even done with the night.....
