I'm a king wearing a crown
Which is made of broken dreams
Reigning a kingdom that's falling apart
I'm the chief in command
Of an army that shoots
With missiles made of forgotten promises
So don't you look at me
Like I'm supposed to save love you
I'm busy sleeping in
It seems like this life is a school
Where you learn how to fail
And I'm the best in class
An emotional disaster
Everyone's favorite fuck-up
The martyr who forgot
What he was dying for
