There's always an I'm sorry after every outburst, another apology
There's always a make up after every frickin' break up,
So tell me what we're doing babe

Why oh why do we play this game always want the last word
It's a war that no one can win, we just keep getting hurt

If you're the only one that can make me this mad

(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)

If you're the only one that can hurt me this bad

(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)

But I want you for myself

I still want you for myself

I want you for myself

Because I want you for my self

You creep under my skin and then you ruin my make up,

You know exactly how to tick me off

And yet I can't resist you when you're kissin' my face up,

And everything's forgiven and forgot

I try and try to convince myself that this ain't gonna work
Why oh why is the thought of you being gone so much worse

If you're the only one that can make me this mad

(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)

If you're the only one that can hurt me this bad

(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)

But I want you for myself

I still want you for myself

I want you for myself

Because I want you for my self

Why do we play this game, oh

If you're the only one that can make me this mad

(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)
If you're the only one that can hurt me this bad
(Why can't I can walk away, walk away...)
But I want you for myself
I still want you for myself
I want you for myself
Because I want you for my self
