"Golden Rules"

My parents always told me
Go be good in school
Please listen to the teachers
Follow all those rules
Don't you break those rules

Don't hang around with bad girls
They'll only lead you astray
Stay away from the bad boys
All that's on their mind's rolling in the hay

But I don't think I listen very well, she told me...

Boys are all the same, only want one thing
Not talking fancy cars or them diamond rings
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule
Some will take your money, some will take your heart
And some will leave with both,
Tear your world apart
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule,
Remember mama's golden rule

I tried to be a good girl
And do what she said
But it's not very easy
Mama I'm still young (mama I'm still young)
So now I'm back to party
And wanna have some fun
I never leave the disco
Till the lights come on & the night is done

But one thing always stays inside my min-in-in-ind

Boys are all the same, only want one thing
Not talking fancy cars or them diamond rings
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule
Some will take your money, some will take your heart

And some will leave with both,
Tear your world apart
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule,
Remember mama's golden rule

My mama told me use my head, my head
Try remember every word she said
Uh huh woah oh
Ah ah oh woah oh
Uh huh woah oh

My mama told me use my head, my head
Try remember every word she said
Uh huh woah oh
Ah ah oh woah oh
Uh huh woah oh

Boys are all the same, only want one thing
Not talking fancy cars or them diamond rings
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule
Some will take your money, some will take your heart
And some will leave with both,
Tear your world apart
Play it cool
Remember mama's golden rule,
Remember mama's golden rule
