Rochelle:

Early in the morning I sit up in my bathroom
Baby in the perfect silence I can't hide it
It's about enough now

Vanessa:

Baby we've been stalling
and I've been telling fairy tales
This is taking all my focus, I can't do this
There is so much you don't know

Frankie:

And I've been fighting dark demons trying to make way for light
But I just dig myself deeper down
I gotta make it right

CHORUS

Group:

Ooh it's time to talk about truth now
It's time I, it's time that
You know what you getting yourself into now?
These white lies
These white lies
Turning into shades of grey
Go darker every day
They just won't go away
Ooh it's time to talk about truth now
These white lies
These white lies

Mollie:

You'd be kinda perfect and we would be a perfect match
If only I had it in me, I'm so sorry
Never meant to hurt you

Vanessa:

And I've been fighting dark demons trying to make way for light
But I just dig myself deeper down I gotta make it right

CHORUS

Una:

Bad excuses
Baby it's true
And I can't excuse this
Cos white lies turn to black lies and I lose
Woah-oh
