Tell me that you love me, lady, one more time
One more time slowly
'Til then I will float in silence gingerly
Consuming energy

Baby, you could stay, just one more little day
This time it would be nice if you could fight back
Baby, you could stay, just one more little day
This time it would be nice if you could fight back

Give me one good reason, baby, why I'd leave?
Why I'd leave you here?
Until then I will float in silence gingerly
Consuming energy

Oh, did it again
Oh, who's gonna help us clean this up?
Please excuse me
While I blow into a million pieces

Baby, you could stay, just one more little day
This time it would be nice if you could fight back
Baby, you could stay, just one more little day
This time it would be nice if you could fight back
