Oh no sticky low sound the bell we'll hear them all colliding strong young handsome drones outfitted you're sexy know stand by me honesty when small plans become grand

call in a year
i'll still be stuck here, so
will you dear?
could you spare?
will you spare us?
hey mom your pretty boy is coming
he cares a lot
all your tendencies are with

gone gone impotent
the tree was chopped down nobodies fun, you're winding ease back, sweet heart attack your voice too loud imagine that you're whinning the stinks in the room so foul out of tune

call in a year
will you dear?
he cares a lot
