"Where Ever You May Go"

Three a day, I'll take my role in life as a middle Growing by the hour, my son
Four a day (four a day) rays of light catch dust as it settles
This puts us in awe

Where ever you may go
Might fall through the Earth
I'll make sure you're not disturbed
You need your rest

So high
Where ever you may go

Nowadays the pain in my shoe is a pebble
But I move along
What's to say
Your mood won't drop us into the ocean
This puts us in awe

Uh oh what just happened here
All the money's gone and disappeared
Never never never will this happen again
But my mind is too hard to mend

Where ever you may go
Might fall through the Earth
I'll make sure you're not disturbed
You need your rest
So high
Where ever you may go

So high
