There's a lot to learn about being you
about being free about making progress
Building walls, shuttin doors, makin calls
Down empty halls, I couldn't care less There's a bridge to burn, not a lot to do not a lot to see, maybe it's for the best That's a big idea, but I'm not here to catch your fall, I must confess to you

I won't fall again
Why should now be the end
Do what I say not what I do
I can't see it I know you can't see it too
All I needed was another day

Saw a broken rule, like a beggars fool
You act so cool and you're a joke man
Try to run away from the shit you say
To fight another day, sorry I spoke then There's a stolen word and the last I Heard that you gave up before the bell
That's a big idea but I'm not here to catch your fall, there's something I must tell you

Why should now be the end

There's a bridge to burn, not a lot
To do, not a lot to see, maybe it's for the best Building walls, shutting doors, making calls
And I couldn't care less
There's a lot to learn about being you,
About being free, about making progress
That's the big idea but I'm not here
To catch your fall, I must confess to you
