

The Screaming Jets "Disappear"

Visit "Disappear" on MotoLyrics.com

Torn from this haven and held naked to the skies.
Peace of a passed time

No love is no surprise Formal introduction but I see through your thin

Disguise I trust in no one no truth is all lies. In my waking hour I can

Feel a cold sunrise Dripping with secrets while communication dies. Well I

Cant disappear no more than you can run. Deep inside my fear I want to Disappear.

You justify my hatred as a crying plea for help that's the fault of a past

Line and a feeling never felt New world disorder.
Please don't try to state your case cause you lie You cheat you lose.

I'll rub it in your face.

I can't disappear no more than you can run.

Deep inside my feat I wanna disappear.

I can't disappear no more than you can run.

Deep inside my fear.

I wanna disappear.

I wanna disappear.

I wanna disappear.

I wanna disappear.

I wanna disappear
