"Moon Boots"

I'm gonna leave this place
I've made a snap decision
I'm gonna find another earth and start my own religion
There, I'm shooting through space
Where there ain't no division
I'm gonna see some change
That you wont see on television
No no ooh
Now it's started,
Over day we parted
Leaving you,
This heart aches till the song kicking in,
I'm ready to go

(Chorus)
I've got my moon boots on
And I'm the man on the mission
I've built a rocket to the sky
Gonna say goodbye,
Gonna cut of all transmission
Yeah (2x)
(Yeah yeah)
I've made to a far place
A stranger in a distant land

I've come my parachute off
To see if I could stand
I'm heading for breakthrough work
Somewhere were there ain't no feast
Discovering that the earth inside and same
The only difference, is you're not here, you're not here
No job will start and
Over day, we parted...
Till the song kicking in and I'm ready to go

(Chorus)
Yeah yeah yeah...
(She said 5x)
She said why you're always getting at your face more
You're never happy while you're living in this place more

She said why you're all leaving us behind more
You're always trying while this wraps up your mind

(Chorus)

Yeah yeah...

I'm gonna leave this place

I've made a snap decision

I'm gonna find another earth and start my own religion
