Deadline. The time has come and I'm already here
To hear your prayers, to feel your anxiety
I have waited, I have lost sleep building your coffin
And your grave scratching on it
Liar fucking thief
Second hand wood and rusty nails
Liar fucking thief
You can't survive if you're already dead
You built your empire
I've seen it destroyed
There's no more walls to hang your trophies on
Just dust without worth
We're ready to die reaching our design
We're ready to die just to see your end
The time has come, welcome to your new home
Liar fucking thief
Second hand wood and rusty nails
Liar fucking thief
You can't survive because you're already dead
