The boy next door has really got me dreamin'

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

But I remember when he was a little demon

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

He used to pull my hair

But I didn't really care

I loved him even then

When he was twelve and I was ten

The boy next door used to take my toys away

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

But now he's busy keeping all of the boys away

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

He's jealous as can be

But that's alright with me

He told all the other guys

"Stay away if you value your life"

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

The boy next door wants to move across the street

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

He wants to get married gonna make my life complete

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door)

So if you're looking far
For a boy in your home town
The one that you're looking for
Just might be the boy next door

Oh the boy next door

(dum dee dum dee dum the boy next door
