The days are long, yeah!
I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.

Loving you has always been the easiest part, girl;
Give me just a precious little bit of your heart, girl;
Walk with me forever through the glist'ning sand;
Kiss my lips so tenderly, and I'll be your man.

But the days are long, yeah!
I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.

Breaking up's the saddest scene in any romance, girl;
Stand by me and give our love an unending chance,
girl;
Rock and roll once told me all the words that were true,
Give your love to me as I gave mine to you . . .

But the days are long, yeah!
I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.

But the days are long, yeah!
I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.

But the days are long, yeah!
And I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.

The days are long, yeah!
And I can't go on, yeah!
Waiting by the phone, yeah!
I cry alone each night over you.
