This is a nightmare I cannot escape,
Watching all my aspirations slowly fading away,
I'm stuck in a spiral that's going down,
With only my bitterness to comfort me,

You're lonely and you're blue,
Your feelings are not true,

You don't wanna speak in case someone will hear,
You don't wanna look in case you see yourself,

The dream machine...

Don't you start complaining again,
Be glad for what you get and pretend you like it,
Days pass by in a dreamlike blur,
I'm happy to be sad, I'm a contradiction,
Slightly mad and self deluded,
Convince myself that this isn't fiction.

You're lonely and you're blue,
Your feelings are not true,

You don't wanna speak in case someone will hear,
You don't wanna look in case you see yourself,

The dream machine...

My reality comes crashing down,
I run for shelter in this barren ground,
The dream is dying but I can't let go,
I burnt my bridges and I have no home,
This isn't real...

The dream machine...

Anti-Light,
Anti-Light,
Anti-Light,
Anti-Light
