Who does she think she is, coming to my party,
Then trying to dance every dance with my guy?
While the lights are still dim
She's making time with him
And I don't like the look that I see in her eyes.
I'm gonna go over there and
When this record ends
I'm gonna stop the music if they dance again.

It's kinda quiet now
The last song has ended and another song is starting,
Starting to play.
She's walking across the floor
Straight into his arms once more.
I'm gonna put a stop to this thing right away.
I'm gonna go over there and
I can't take it no more
So turn on the lights,
The partys over for tonight
You hear what I say, now?
So turn on the lights, the partys over.
