I heard them saying, you don't want me
You don't need me, not anymore
I heard them saying, you don't love me
You don't care for me, not anymore

Look at all those things I have beared for you
Look at all those trouble, you make me feel
Now you have gone and have left me
But you'll never get away, yeah, you'll never get away

I heard them saying, you left me stranded
You left me all alone in misery
I heard them saying, you don't love me
You don't care for me, not anymore

The road of life is so rocky
And someday you might fall back on me
I will forgive you, I know that I will
But you'll never get away, yeah, someone will make you pay

The road of life is so rocky
And someday you might fall back on me
I will forgive you, I know that I will
But you'll never get away, yeah, you'll never get away

I heard them saying, you don't want me
You don't need me, not anymore
I heard them saying, you don't love me
You don't care for me, not anymore

I heard them saying, you left me stranded
You left me all alone, in misery
