You are my first thought in the morning
And the last of every night
You're the one that's make everything looks like a miracle
The brightness in my life
Your kisses are delight
U really had made me want u more
More than before
Sometimes it hurt
When u wanna leaved tonight
Sometimes it feel, like there's no way I could hide
My feeling for u
And I thought that u should stay
Now wondering why
That I wanted u to stay
Another day, so I can show u
My heart is gray, and crying for u
To cherish me, to comfort me
And I swear to god
That I really, really love you
