Verse I

It was a day that I saw you
Then I was writing a song too
A picture that tells me
How I'm definitely naive

I sent you a letter
And you read it gently
A sound of your voice
Could barely melt me

Ref:

And I want to tell you this
How much I need you

Chorus:

Cause I'm definitely missing you, loving you
Looking everywhere to hold on to
Cause until someday I'll be waiting
Til the last breath that I will share with you

Verse II

I'm lying awake in this empty room
Finding an answer for my unsearchable questions
Could we still make it to the top
Where I'm needing you most?

Ref:

And I want to tell you this
How much I need you

Chorus:

Cause I'm definitely missing you, loving you
Looking everywhere to hold on to
Cause until someday I'll be waiting
Til the last breath that I will share with you
