Girl, think of what you're doin'
Before you ru-in Love, like you'll never, ever find again
'Cause you won't find a truer love
If you tear the world apart
A truer love you couldn't find
If you searched in every heart

Girl, stop your silly spiting
And useless fighting
My love is so true
Don't you think that you
Would be cruel to leave this love
Suspicious you will find
Are never true, they are so blind
Suspicious in your mind

Girl, you should just forget them
Or you'll regret them
Lies told by boys who
Would love to be with you
But they won't, if you trust in me
Suspicious you will find
Are never true, they are so blind
And true love's hard to find

You better not believe suspicions
You're gonna find they're wrong
You're only hurtin' yourself girl
Yeah, you're gonna find they're lies
Told by other guys
Who wanna love you
