Since the day when I met you
I've been lost in desperation
It's in everything I do
Like a bittersweet sensation

I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling
I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling

Everytime when we're apart
I am all about frustration
You're the chain around my heart
You're my final destination

I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling
I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling

Oh, you can reach me
No one else can chain me like you do
Ohh, you can reach me
Everything just leads me back to you, yeah

I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling
I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling

It's a cool wind blowing in
It's the time when leaves start falling
All the things that might have been
I can hear a silent calling

I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling
I am, I am, I am, I am
I'm your destiny calling
