They will never break your mind
You will never fall from grace
You are undestructable
You will last a thousand years
And if you wanna slip away
I've got some to ease your pain

You're keeping your legs crossed honey
Like a good girl should
Who's smearing your lipgloss honey yeah
Come on take me by the hand

Tonight you're all mine
When daylight comes you'll be the last girl on my mind
But tonight you're all mine
When daylight comes you'll be the last girl on my mind
The last girl on my mind

You will never fade away
They will never shut you down
You will always stand your ground
Sweeter than the speed of sound
And don't you be afraid to fall
I won't let you hit the ground

You're keeping your legs crossed honey
Like a good girl should
Who's smearing your lipgloss honey yeah
Come on take me by the hand

Tonight you're all mine
When daylight comes you'll be the last girl on my mind
But tonight you're all mine
When daylight comes you'll be the last girl on my mind
The last girl on my mind
