I gave you my world
Though I know it'll cause you pain
It will cause you pain

It's wicked and cruel
Only you can make it sane
You make it sane

You throw me right into an ocean of love
And I'm surrounded by your glory

You sweet thing
Changing my world to something gorgeous

I gave you my world
Though I know it'll make you hurt
It'll make you hurt

Love isn't kind
It's ruthless and blind and oh so hard to find
So hard to find
