"Walk Of Love"

You knocked me of my feet
Right down to my knees
You really set my heart in motion
My heart just skipped a beat
I'm loosing my soul
As I am loosing my devotion

We're breaking up it's time for a change
A tradegy descends on the walk of love

Enter the walk of love
Spinning me like a hurricane
Enter the walk of love
You keep spinning me like a hurricane
Walk of love

I'm walking out the door
Got nothing to say
We're running out of conversation
We're heading for defeat
I'm going away
I need a permanent vacation
