Packup all my cares and woe
Here I go, feeling low
Bye bye, blackbird

Where somebody waits for me
Sugar is sweet, so is he
Bye Bye, blackbird

No one seems to love or understand me
How the hard luck stories, they just hand me
Make my bed and light the light
I'll be coming home tonight
Bye bye, blackbird

No one seems to love or understand me
Oh, the hard luck stories, they just hand me
Where somebody shines the light
I'll be coming home tonight
Bye bye, blackbird
