Birds may cease to spread their wings
But it don't matter
But it don't matter
When does May envelop spring
But it don't matter
But it don't matter, cuz
When I'm with you
My whole world stands still
You're my one and only thrill

Ships may never leave the dock,
But it don't matter
But it don't matter
Tics may never hear a toc
But it don't matter
But it don't matter, cuz
When I'm with you
My whole world stands still
You're my one and only thrill

{Instrumental}

Shores may never reach the tide
But it don't matter
But it don't matter
Buds may never open wide
But it don't matter
But it don't matter, cuz
When I'm with you
My whole world stands still
You're my one and only thrill
You're my
You're my

You're my one and only
... Thrill
