Dance with me
Let me put my arms around you
Step into the sound
Close your eyes
You will see

Dance with me
I don't have an explanation
I only want to feel part of you next to me

I thought about it for so long
That it could never be
I ran away from every song
And wait until the final one
If you would only dance with me

Let me pull your body closer
Read your lips
Speak your mind
When you say...

Dance with me
Don't wait until the music's over
I don't want to watch as the night slips away

I thought about it for so long
That it could never be
I ran away from every song
And wait until the final one
If you would only dance with me

Dance with me
Dance with me

I'm standing here and I confess
The way you look inside that dress
Is bringing life unto this wooden floor
For one last time the band will play
And I am only steps away
From feeling like I've never felt before

Dance with me

Let me pull your body closer
Let me read your lips
Speak your mind
When you say...

Dance with me
Don't wait until the music's over
I don't want to watch as the night slips away

I thought about it for so long
That it could never be
I ran away from every song
And wait until the final one
If you would only dance with me

Dance with me
Let me put my arms around you
