I feel your hand in mine, I touch your skin
Your heart is calling out
You want to let me in, to let me in

Your lips are silent now, we're not alone
I'd like to tell you how much
I'd like to take you home
So I can make love to you

I believe in you so
And there's only one moment to live
When you're here next to me
There's so much more I have to give

CHORUS

When the wind blows
There's nothing else you can run to
Let's stay together tonight
I'm waiting for you
All the words that I told you
Will always be true
Let's stay together tonight
Whatever we do

Why must I keep pretending
I'm in control
When I can feel your senses
Burning through my soul
Through my soul

I believe in you so
And there's only one moment to live
When you're here next to me
There's so much more I have to give

REPEAT CHORUS

Hold me close, don't let me go
I just want you to say that, I need you
I want you to know
