Whenever my mind sees you, girl
I think of the times we owned the world
Crazy in love, I missed the signs, I just couldn't see
I never believed you were leavin' my life

Baby, give us one more chance
So we can love again
There's a time for love, a time to heal
Now, it's time for us to mend

Baby, give us one more chance
Let me come back home
I don't wanna run the endless road
Or fight the world alone

You were the diamond in my life
You were the only star in sight
Playin' against the odds I lost, all that I had Oh, what was the cost of you leavin' my life?

Baby, give us one more chance
So we can love again
There's a time for love, a time to heal
Now, it's time for us to mend

Baby, give us one more chance
Let me come back home
I don't wanna run the endless road
Or fight the world alone

Give us one more chance
It's all that we need
To let the heartache mend, girl
And make a love once broken, strong again

Baby, give us one more chance
So we can love again
There's a time for love, a time to heal
Now, it's time for us to mend

Baby
Let me come back home

I don't wanna run the endless road
Or fight the world alone

Baby, give us one more chance
So we can love again
There's a time for love, a time to heal
Now, it's time for us to mend
Baby
