Well I've got my complaints
It's leaving me alone
When I'm so far away so far away from home
Maybe it's destiny that I will walk alone
Don't make a mess of me

Why can't you see that I can't?
Stop my life quit making sound
Can't regret it listen to me now somehow
I'll suffocate the pain inside me

Well I've got my complaints
It's leaving me alone
When I'm so far away so far away from home
Maybe it's destiny that will walk alone
Don't make a mess of me

I'll suffocate the pain inside me
I'll suffocate the pain inside me
And you know I follow you into the fire
