And it's only you, and the things that you do,
That makes me feel, so alive so true
And it's only you, incomparable you
That makes me see, the light, through you.

Chorus:

Our days together grow strong in my mind
My question is can we stand the test of time.
But it's only you, unmeasurable you
That lightens up, the days, that are so blue
And it's only you, there are no regrets in you
That makes me feel, like the man I'm supposed to.

Chorus

I bet for you, and those things that you do
I bet for you, and those things that you do
And if I had to choose from a million stars,
Then I'd choose you

Chorus

And I bet for you, only you
And those things that you do
